A COLLECTION OF DARKER SELVES.

Masks become characters. Characters become stories. From monsters and creatures to witches and the dead, TAMISRĀ explores fear as fashion — shaped by texture, silhouette, detail and the imagination.

THE ART OF BECOMING THE MONSTER

Not everyone hides from their darkness. Some wear it.

Inside each of us lives a version untamed. A self unfiltered. A form that speaks when we stay silent.

A monster is not the absence of beauty — it is its distortion.
It is instinct without apology,
desire without disguise, freedom
without permission.

Through seventeen alter egos,
we explore the many faces we carry
— the rage, the mischief, the wild,
the forgotten, the divine, the grotesque,
the playful, the primal. Each mask
a mirror. Each character a fragment.
Each look a version of you.

Because becoming a monster
is not about losing yourself.
It's about finally finding all of you.

FEAR HAS MANY FACES

*No two nightmares
look alike.*

Some are ancient.
Some are wild.
Some are born from the shadows.
Others have been waiting behind your own face.

MEET
THE COLLECTION.

A COLLECTION OF DARKER SELVES.

Different faces.
Different stories.
The same night.

From the ancient to the untamed.
From the grotesque to the primal.
From the familiar to the unknown.

Because there isn't just one way to disappear.
There are many.

THE TWISTED

WHAT LOOKS HUMAN ISN'T ALWAYS.

There are faces that frighten us because they belong to monsters.
And then there are
faces that frighten us
because they look almost human.

The Twisted lives in that uncomfortable space — where familiarity bends,
beauty becomes strange,
and the face we know
becomes something we no longer recognize.

FACES MADE TO BE REMEMBERED.

THE WITCHES

BEAUTY
SECRETS.

*They see what others cannot.
They remember what others forget.
The Witches are not villains.
They are the balance — between light and what lies beyond.*

THE WITCHES

THREE FACES.
ONE POWER.
AN ETERNAL LEGACY.

*Mystics. Outcasts. Storytellers.
The Witches have always lived between worlds — feared for their knowledge, admired for their power, and never truly understood.*

RITUAL WEAR FOR A
DARKER KIND OF BEAUTY.

GRIMSPELL WITCH

*Cursed with knowledge beyond time.
The Grimspell Witch carries the weight of forgotten rituals and speaks in truths others fear.*

MOONSHADOW WITCH

She walks in silence, guided by the moon. The Moonshadow Witch sees what others cannot and finds beauty in the unseen.

NIGHTSHADOW SORCERESS

*She does not just see the future —
she shapes it. The Nightshadow Sorceress commands the space between dreams and reality,
where true power lives.*

THE DEAD

THE AWAKENING

What remains when
the living are gone.

They walk between worlds —
neither gone nor forgotten.
The Dead are a reminder that beauty does not end with life. It simply changes form.

THE MASK AS FASHION

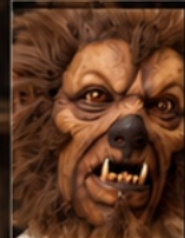

WHEN FEAR BECOMES A STATEMENT.

The mask is no longer an accessory to the costume. It is the statement. Sculptural faces, animal instincts and dark silhouettes transform the wearer into something beyond ordinary fashion. Paired with leather, tailoring, couture and streetwear, each mask creates a different identity — part creature, part character, entirely unforgettable.

Masks become the focal point of the silhouette.

IDENTITY

Change the mask, change the character.

ATTITUDE

From couture to streetwear, the styling follows the creature.
